

“Not a friendly Farewell”

We sat there, down in Brady's pub for a drink,
Not that long ago as you think... and we told some Great stories 'bout our latest trips

Some angry bastards stared at us with Jealous eyes,
Wanted us to leave or shut up otherwise they would give us
Not a friendly farewell
(What the hell?)

Instrumentaler Refrain

We ignored what they said and went on with our stories to tell,
The guys all around us said “well, that are quite a lot
Great adventures you had”

But then the angry bastards came over to fight,
They threw us outside in the cold bloody night where we just got
Not a friendly farewell
(But what the hell?)

Instrumentaler Refrain

Bridge:

They fought us hard, they fought us bad, they really gave us hell!
We did not back out and stroke right back, we also fought quite well.
But they were too much, we went down,
so there was'nt a friendly farewell.
In that way we got for all of you another story to tell... x2
